Examination Terms and Conditions

Answer Script Viewing Process (ASV)

1. The opportunity to view answer scripts of Semester End Examinations (SEE) is limited to theory courses and ASV is not applicable for the Laboratory Courses.
2. Students can apply for the viewing process within the specified timeframe for the courses (only for "F" grade courses), excluding those involved in malpractice.
3. The time and venue (Valuation Cell, 4th floor, Academic Block) for displaying answer scripts for various program courses will be announced on the examination notice board. The scripts will be shown only to the applied students in person on the designated date and time.
4. Students must wear their ID card when entering the ASV hall. Failure to have an ID card will be considered as an absence, and no additional slots will be provided.
5. Students are prohibited from carrying calculators, mobile phones, cameras, smartwatches, notepads, bags, or other items. They can only bring a pen/pencil and an empty sheet.
6. A specified time slot of 10 minutes per script will be allocated to students for viewing. The link to view the answer script will be shared with the students' official email ID at the venue during the allotted time slot. It is the student's responsibility to provide the correct email ID during the application process. The link will only be accessible once.
7. Students applying to view answer scripts must be personally present 10 minutes before the prescribed time and place. Representatives are not allowed. If a student misses their opportunity after registration, the registration becomes null and void. No extra time will be provided for latecomers.
8. During the paper viewing process, there is no provision for students to interact with faculty or fellow students.
9. Separate applications must be submitted for the viewing and challenge valuation processes of answer scripts.
